4. Your rights as a data subject

4.1. Right to rectification and erasure of personal data

You have the right to have inaccurate personal data rectified by the controller without undue delay. You have the right to have your personal data erased by the controller without undue delay as soon as the purpose of storage is no longer necessary. In cases where data processing is performed on the basis of your consent, the right to erasure exists if you withdraw your consent and no other legal grounds exist for processing the data.

Your personal data must be erased if you object to the processing in accordance with Art. 21 (1) GDPR and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or if your personal data has been unlawfully processed, or if your personal data must be erased in order to comply with a legal requirement mandated by a EU or member state law, to which the University of Münster is subject.

The right to erasure as put forth in the cases stated above does not apply, however, if it would hinder compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by European Union or member state law, to which the University of Münster is subject, or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the University of Münster, or if extended storage is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

4.2. Right to withdrawal

If permission to process personal data is granted by your consent, you may withdraw your consent at any time. All processing of personal data performed prior to withdrawal remains lawful irrespective of withdrawal.

4.3. Right to information

You have the right to obtain confirmation from the University of Münster whether it is processing any personal data related to you. If such is the case, you have a right to information regarding the type of personal data and the purpose for which it is being processed. You also have the right to obtain information on the duration of the planned storage of the data, or on the criteria for determining how long the data is to be stored.

4.4. Right to raise an objection with the supervisory authority

You also have the right to raise an objection with the supervisory authority. The responsible supervisory authority is: Landesbeauftragte für Datenschutz und Informationsfreiheit Nordrhein-Westfalen, Postfach 20 04 44, 40102 Düsseldorf, Germany, tel.: +49 211 38424-0, email: poststelle@ldi.nrw.de.
