

Regulations for Use of the University and State Library of Münster - Supplementary Provisions for the Heribert Meffert Library

The Regulations for Use are available on the ULB website at <https://ulb.uni-muenster.de/benutzungsordnung>.

Regarding § 12 Conduct on Library Premises

Outerwear and bags may be brought into the library.

Pursuant to § 21 (4) of the ULB Regulations for Use, library staff are entitled to inspect containers brought into the library.

Drinks in securely closable containers are permitted in the library.

Food may not be consumed in the library.

Regarding § 14 General Provisions on the Use and Borrowing of Physical Media Holdings and

Regarding § 16 Loan Periods, Renewals, Return Obligations & Overdue Loans

As a general rule, the library is a reference library.

Library staff may permit University of Münster students to borrow items for short-term use outside the library. In particular, they determine who is eligible to borrow, the loan period (weekends and public holidays), the maximum number of items, and the types of publications that may be borrowed.

Academic staff may borrow media under the same conditions as at the ULB.

In the event of a breach of these lending rules, the library management may, pursuant to § 22 (3) of the ULB Regulations for Use, exclude the user from borrowing.
